

MORDEN COLLEGE BLACKHEATH

Private Guided Tour

Monday 9 October at 2.00*

Cost including a donation to the College, & tea & biscuits £10

Morden College is a Charity dedicated to supporting older people. Founded in 1695 by the pioneering merchant, Sir John Morden for colleagues who were less fortunate than he: 'those who have lost their Estates by accidents, dangers and perils of the seas or by any other accidents ways or means in their honest endeavours to get their living by means of Merchandizing'. The original establishment was built to a design sometimes attributed to Sir Christopher Wren but largely carried out by Edward Strong, his master mason. Many modern additions have been made to increase and enhance the facilities, resulting in the very impressive institution we see today.

We will be led on a guided tour of the grounds and principal buildings by their librarian and archivist, Gillian Edwards. The tour will be followed by refreshments.

DIRECTIONS: To walk from the village centre please allow at least 20 minutes, more if you walk slowly. Via South Row and Morden Road enter through the main gate with the gatehouse to your right and walk up the right hand fork. When you get to the top there is the signboard pictured. Turn right here and you will see the John Morden Centre ahead. We meet here by Reception. Spaces may be available on the adjacent car park but this is by no means guaranteed. If you bring your car, please report its number to security.

*If you require further information, or are unable to come at the last minute
